

CHINA INTERNATIONAL VALUATION CONFERENCE

The 12th WAVO CONGRESS

SEPTEMBER 16-17, 2026

SHANGHAI, CHINA

We sincerely invite you to join us for the China International Valuation Conference and the 12th WAVO Congress. The congress is planned to take place on September 16–17 this year at the Shanghai National Accounting Institute.

Aiming to explore global practices in the high-quality development of valuation, the conference will bring together leading experts from around the world to share cutting-edge insights on a wide range of topics. The agenda covers trending valuation topics, including artificial intelligence, business valuation, intangible asset valuation, sustainable development, and intellectual property valuation, among others, presenting the latest trends and innovative achievements in the valuation profession.

The congress is organised by the China Appraisal Society. Details on participation and registration will be announced in due course.

We look forward to welcoming you to this landmark event.
