Invitation:

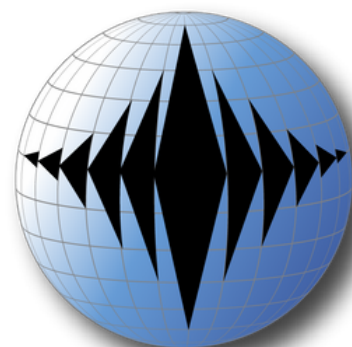

Alongside its own National Property Conference, and for the first time, the Property Institute is delighted to host the IVSC/WAVO Global Valuation Conference 2023, from June 7-9 in Christchurch, New Zealand.

The conference promises to be an exceptional international occasion, delivering second-to-none opportunities for all property professionals who want to grow their global networks and benefit from the experiences of inspirational, expert speakers.

The conference is being held at Te Pae Convention Centre, a world class venue in the heart of Christchurch. From there, delegates may decide to explore more of beautiful New Zealand.

This promises to be an outstanding event, with great people, building incredible property careers.

Please visit www.propertyinstitute.nz for more information and to register your interest in attending. More information is to come over the coming months. We hope you can join us!
